A BIRD IN THE HAND IS WORTH TWO IN THE BUSH

Shortly after he caught a wild hen
The hunter saw a pair of twin hens
He released the hen in his hand so he could aim his gun at the twin hens the hens took to their heels and ran and the hunter lost all of them
As the saying goes
A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush

Meaning

‘A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush’ means to be having something for certain is better than taking a risk trying to get more or get something better.

Example

He might get a better offer, but he decided to sell his car right away as the saying goes a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.

A CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK

What a shock!
He's such a chip off the old block
The way he walks
The way he talks is exactly like his father, Brock

Meaning

‘A chip off the old block’ means a person who is similar in character to one of his or her parents.

Example

They say I’m a chip off the old block, but I think I’m very different from my mum.
